Hague, December 23, O. S.

THE States-General will not fail to congratulate the Czarina, on the raising the Siege of Oczakow, which News has been communicated to them by the Count de Golofkin; the rather because she writes Word to her said Minister, that the ill Success of the Turks in the said Enterprize will humble their Pride, and contribute very much to the Advancement of the Peace. The Russian Ministry did not exult more upon the Battle of Pultowa, than they do upon this Affair; which some think is a Political Affectation. But, be this as it will, Golofkin says, That Oczakow being abundantly provided with all Necessaries for a long Defence, and the General Stoffeln, who commands in the said Fortress, with a truly warlike Garison, being a Soldier of Fortune, prudent and wise, and keen as his Sword, they are very quiet at Petersburg, as to any Attempts which the Turks may again make for the Recovery of that important Place; for the Russians don't doubt but they will return to the Charge.

They write from Vienna, that the Council of War appointed for trying Colonel Sulhausen, having passed Sentence on him to be beheaded, for his Breach of Duty, the same has been confirmed by the Aulick Council of War.

It is certain that the States-General have order'd the respective Admiralties to fit out 8 or 10 Men of War secretly against next Spring.

The Marshal d'Estrees, who dy'd at Paris the 16th, aged 85, was Dean of the Marshals of France, Knight of the King's Orders, Governor of Mantre, Lieutenant-General of the Province of Bretagne, Vice-Admiral of the Levant, Vice-Roy of the Islands of St. Domingo, Martinico, &c.

The Baron de Pollnitz, who by his Memoirs seems to have made an excellent Acquaintance with the most distinguish'd modern Characters, in the Courts and Kingdoms where he has resided, gives the following Account of this great Man, in his Second Volume, p. 259, &c. of the Translation, which we are perwaded will not be displeasing to our Reader.

Victor Maria, Duke d'Estrees, who is the oldest Marshal of France, is Vice-Admiral of France, a Duke and Peer, a Grandee of Spain, a Commander of the King's Orders, and a Knight of the Golden Fleece. He is the last of his Family, which has been render'd illustrious by all the Great Dignities of the Kingdom, ever since Henry IV. He lives with as much Splendour and Magnificence as most Noblemen in France: His House is open to all Foreigners of Distinction, and Men of Knowledge and Learning are well received in it. The Marshal has a fine Library, a most beautiful Cabinet of Medals, and a complete Collection of antique Stones that are grav'd. Besides the Estate of the Family of Estrees, of which he is the only Head, he made great Acquisitions by Mississippi Stock, and there are few Sovereigns who have finer Diamonds. Since the Troubles that arose in Bretagne, during the Regency of the Duke of Orleans, the Assembly of the States of that Province is always held by this Nobleman. The Nobility of Bretagne extol him very much, and find a great Difference between their Treatment by this Marshal, and the rigid haughty Air with which the late Marshal de Montesquiou carried it to them, during the Regency. Tho' the Marshal d'Estrees is very much attach'd to the Court, yet he is often at Paris, where he has a very fine House, and is visited by the greatest and the best People in the Kingdom. The Marshal's Lady who is Noailles, Sister to the Countess de Tholouse, was formerly a Lady of the Bed-chamber to the Duchess of Burgundy; she has all the Politeness of the ancient Court, and tho' she is past the Bloom of her Youth, she is still one of the most amiable Women at Court, and by her Management there is not a more agreeable Family than hers in the Kingdom.

VOTES of the House of Commons of Ireland.

Luna 12 Die Decembris.

RESOLVED, That this House will, on the 20th Day of April next, resolve itself into a Committee of the whole House, to take into Consideration Heads of a Bill, To enable the several Courts of Law and Equity in this Kingdom, to make use of Affidavits taken before any Judge of any of the Courts at Westminster, or before any of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery in England, and for Regulating the Offices of the Six Clerks of the High Court of Chancery of this Kingdom.

Martis 13 Die.

Ordered, Heads of a Bill to be brought in to make it Felony wilfully to destroy, burn or cast away Ships that are insur'd, or that have Merchants Goods on Board, to the Prejudice of such Merchants or the Insurers.

Mr. Lill, from the Commissioners of the Revenue, delivered to the House an Account of the Quantities of Brandy and other Spirits imported into this Kingdom, from the Year ended the 25th of March 1718, to the Year ended the 25th of March 1730, both inclusive.

Mercurii 14 Die.

Captain Wynne reported from the Committee, appointed to take into Consideration the Petition of the Widows of Officers on the Irish Establishment, that they had come to several Resolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow;

Resolved, That it appears to this Committee, that there have been several considerable Sums of Money remitted annually to England to William Wogan, Esq; Agent to the Widows of Officers on this Establishment, of the Application of which Sums, no satisfactory Account has been produced to this Committee.

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that William Wogan, Esq; his Attendance, with proper Vouchers for the Sums of Money remitted to him for the Use of the Widows of Officers on this Establishment, now residing in Great Britain, is absolutely necessary for the Information of this Committee.

Ordered, That the Committee have Leave to sit again.

Ordered, That William Wogan, Esq; do attend this House the first Monday after the Meeting of the House after the Recess.

Mr. Warburton, Senior, reported from the Committee, appointed to examine the Allegations of the Petition of William Aldrich of the City of Dublin, Alderman, and Hugh Cumming, of the same City, Merchant, in relation to the Lights of the said City, That they had come to several Resolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow;

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioners have prov'd the Allegations of their Petition to the Satisfaction of this Committee.

That the best and most equal Method of paying the Tax for lighting the City and Suburbs of Dublin, will be according to the Method of paying Minister's Money.

That Fifteen Shillings per Lamp yearly will be a reasonable Sum for lighting the City of Dublin.

And Ordered, That Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill pursuant to the said Resolutions.

Sir Richard Cox reported from the Committee appointed to enquire into the State and Condition of the Fisheries of this Kingdom, as also the Petition of Lieutenant Samuel Chaplin, That they had come to several Resolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and agreed to by the House, and are as follow;

Resolved, That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that in order to encourage the Whale Fishery of this Kingdom, it would be fit to give a Premium on the Oil and Finn of the Whales taken on the Coasts of, and sav'd in Ireland.

And that the Petitioner Lieutenant Samuel Chaplin, having discover'd a beneficial Whale Fishery upon the Coasts of this Kingdom, and having made several Improvements therein, deserves Encouragement.

From the London Gazette.

Hague, Dec. 27. N. S. Count Uhlfeldt has, by Order of his Court, renewed his Inlances for borrowing two Millions of Florins, upon certain Securities offered, and refused before. The said Minister notified to the States some Days ago, that the Emperor, in Compliance to the States, has ordered his Commissioners at Antwerp to take under Consideration the Grievances of the States before any other Matters; but by the Advices received from thence, the Commissioners insist to have the Tariff settled before all: It is therefore supposed they had not yet received such Orders.

L O N D O N.

The Ship lost upon the Goodwin Sands, proves to be the Venetian Galley, Capt. Roloffe, of and from Amsterdam, with a very rich Cargo for Italy and Turkey, very little of which is saved.

The Sarah, Capt. Gale, from Newfoundland, was lately lost on the Bar of Aveiro.

A Dutch Ship bound from Curacao for Amsterdam, is arrived in King-Road near Bristol, whose Master reports, that he was forced up that Channel by strong Southerly Winds, and thick Weather, in company with a Dutch Ship of 30 Guns, bound from Smyrna to Amsterdam, which he very much fear'd was lost on the Coast of Wales.

The Mary, Capt. Kemp, from Cadiz, is not arrived at Falmouth, as mentioned in our last, but at Plymouth, from whence the Captain writes, that he had been 18 Days on his Passage, during which time he had met with exceeding bad Weather.

Yesterday in the Afternoon died at his House in Ironmonger Lane, Rowland Ingram, Esq; Head Keeper of Newgate, whose Humanity and other good Qualities, makes his Loss greatly regretted by all who knew him.

On Wednesday Night last, about 11 o'Clock, two Men, at the Peahen in Bishopsgatestreet, having some Words together, one snatch'd up a Knife, and stabbed the other, so that his Bowels came out, and he died in a little Time after. The Murderer was secured, and sent to the Poultry Compter.

Yesterday Morning a Fire broke out at the Pine-Apple, a great Cook's Shop, in New-street, Covent-Garden, which burnt with such Violence that in less than an Hour that House was consumed, and several of the adjoining Houses greatly damaged: But we do not hear that any Person perished in the Flames.

We hear from Saffron-Walden in Essex, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Suffolk has, this Christmas, given away to the Poor of the Six nearest Parishes where his Lordship lives, 6 very good Steers, and 600 Three-penny Loaves: Which Gift he has given every Year since his Marriage.

A few Days since died at the Bath, Mr. James Ellis, an eminent Plasterer, and Surveyor of this City, who had gained by his Business a considerable Fortune with great Reputation. He was, generally, in most Disputes relating to Workmen's Bills, admitted as Arbitrator, and commonly called Judge Ellis. For, 'tis thought, by his Arbitration, more Lawfuits have been prevented, than by any one Man's in England; the Workmen in general paying such great Deference to his Judgment as always to abide by his Determination. He has left a considerable Legacy to the Plasterers Company.

Yesterday

Yesterday died, aged 75, at his House in Whitefriars, Mr. William Bowyer, Printer, an Ornament to his Profession, excelling in every Relative as well as Religious Duty: A Tender Husband, an Indulgent Father, a Careful, Generous Master; a Man whose Behaviour in every Circumstance of Life, shewed him worthy the Esteem paid him by all.

On Wednesday last Major Battine had the Fine Silver Cistern delivered to him by Mr. Jernegan. When the News was brought to him in Sussex, he gave away 5 Barrels of Beer to the Populace.

We hear that the said Gentleman has made Mr. Willson, at Young Man's Coffee-house, Charing-Cross, who first brought him the agreeable News, a very handsome Present, for his great Care and indefatigable Pains.

A curious fine Monument, done by Mr. Rysbrack of Oxford Road, is going to be erected in Coleby Church in the County of Lincoln, to the Memory of Mrs. Mary Lister, deceased, on the Pedestal of which is the following Inscription: Viz.

Sacred to the Memory of
Mary Lister, Second Daughter and Coheir of Thomas
Lister of Coleby, in the County of Lincoln, Esq;
She was a Woman
Of very good Sense,
Affable and Courteous to her Equals,
Easy and Humane to her Inferiors,
Agreeable and Obliging to all.
Of strict Virtue and singular Piety to her Great Creator,
To whom she rendered her Soul the 6th of March,
A. D. 1734.
She was the last of the ancient Family of the Listers
of Coleby,
Son of Gervase Scrope, of Cockerington, in the County of Lincoln, Esq;
Who, in Gratitude to her Memory, erected this Monument.

Last Sunday Night died at his House at Ware, in the County of Hertford, John Ashe, Esq; a young Gentleman possessor of an Estate of upwards of 2000 l. per Annum.

This Evening the new-born Son of his Grace the Duke of Richmond, is to be baptized at his Grace's House at Whitehall.

On Sunday last the Corpse of Mr. Auditor Foley was interred, in great Funeral Pomp and Solemnity, at Stoke-Court, in the County of Hereford.

STEVENSON, D. D. Prebendary of Sarum.

To Persons of either Sex

Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSY, and PARALYTIC Disorders so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Afflictions, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star in Cornhill, near Stock's Market, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
